This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The ruling consists of five sets of three lines each, stacked vertically. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for letter height and placement. The margins are consistent throughout the page.

This image shows a blank sheet of handwriting practice paper. It features a solid vertical line on the left side, creating a margin. To the right of this line are five sets of horizontal dashed lines, each set consisting of three parallel lines (top, middle, and bottom) for letter height guidance. The entire page is white and contains no other markings or text.

This is a template for a page from a primary-level notebook or composition book. It features a solid vertical line on the left side, creating a narrow margin. The rest of the page is filled with horizontal lines, alternating between solid and dashed patterns, typical of handwriting practice paper. There are five pairs of these alternating solid and dashed lines across the page.
